

XM radio is the best thing to happen in broadcasting. I like to listen to music, weather and news when I want to. On most of the regular radio stations they have mostly commercials and most of them are stupid, just like TV. We pay for XM radio and it is well worth the money.